

INVITATION

We kindly invite you to Baltic Investors Forum - the two-day international event of the highest level for business internationalization, investment development and future prospects. The Forum will be held on 25-26th of October, 2012 at Le Meridien Vilnius, Lithuania.

The Forum is bringing together the major players in the Baltic market, world-class experts on global and regional economics, government officials, investment bankers, business leaders and academics, international and local media.

The keynote speaker of Baltic Investors Forum will be Dr. Nouriel Roubini, a professor at New York University's Stern School of Business and Chairman of Roubini Global Economics, one of the few global economists who have provisioned the 2008-2009 crisis. The second day of the Event will be opened by Mr. Richard C. Koo, Chief Economist of Nomura Research Institute, Japan. Mr. Koo will present his unique approach to the economic recession causes.

More prominent speakers coming to the event: Ms. Vendeline von Bredow, Deputy Europe Editor, The Economist, Mr. Mark Allen, Senior Regional Director from International Monetary Fund CEE, Mr. Lauri Rosendahl, President, Nasdaq OMX Helsinki and others.

Throughout two days the Business Contact Fair – Exhibition of at least 20 companies and municipalities will take place. B2B meetings are at your disposal to network and have fruitful and focused discussions.

Please register online: here
Ticket prices: EUR 500 + VAT

Contacts: Andželika Rusteikienė, tel. +370 5 275 52 58, andzelika@investorsforum.lt, www.investorsforum.lt